Privacy and Protected Health Information

Kurt Vernon, MD, PA · The GI Guy

Kurt Vernon, MD, PA (The GI Guy) is committed to protecting your privacy in keeping with the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA), other federal regulations, North Carolina law, and our Notice of Privacy Practices.

How We Protect Your Information

- Our endoscopy center and clinical office protect the confidentiality, integrity and availability of your health information.
- Your protected health information (PHI) is only accessed, used or shared when the law permits or requires it, and only by staff who need it for your care or for a legitimate business reason.
- We keep reasonable administrative, physical and technical safeguards in place to prevent anyone from accessing, using or sharing your information without authorization.
- Every staff member is responsible for keeping your information confidential, whether it is spoken, electronic, photographic or written.
- Staff only access the information they need to do their jobs, and make reasonable efforts to use, share or request only the minimum necessary. (This minimum-necessary rule does not apply when information is shared with another health care provider for your treatment.)

When We May Share Information Without a Separate Authorization

HIPAA allows some uses and disclosures without a separate authorization from you, including those for treatment, payment and health care operations.

Your Requests

You may ask us to limit certain uses and disclosures of your information, and we will accommodate reasonable requests to contact you in confidential ways. We handle all patient requests according to HIPAA and our office procedures.
